recently submitted to the governor and returned for correction, was filed with Governor Nash on Monday.

The average prison population during the fiscal year ending November 15, 1900, was 315, the same as that of the preceding year. Superintendent Sefton says in his report that there has been a slight reduction in the per capita cost, but he fails to give the per capita cost for either year. He says that little can be accomplished in the direction of reducing running expenses until the completion of the new cell wing.

He says that the two items of lighting and heating alone, with the present cell capacity, have increased the per capita cost by $31 06 this year. He does not explain how the construction of more places to heat and light will lessen the expense.

The number of prisoners confined at the reformatory November 15, 1899, was 272 and 191 were received from the courts during the year. The paroled prisoners rearrested during the year number 25, and five escaped prisoners were rearrested. The total number in confinement, therefore, was 493. Rev. Mason, of the African M. E. Church, Was Treated to a Pleasant Surprise.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Rev. Mason, pastor of the African M. E. church, at his home, 351 Lisbon street, on Christmas eve. It was in the shape of a donation party, and was attended by a large number of the members of that congregation.

The reverend gentleman was the recipient of many useful articles, prominent among which were a turkey and a load of coal. The occasion was an enjoyable one.

Mrs. Wm. Dunn, of 192 Sixth street, what none of the doctors could do. They told me I had gravel and a little relief was all I could expect. I suffered terribly for two or three years, alternately better and worse, with severe pains across the small of my back and up my side. The pains were so severe that I was often obliged to stay in bed, not being able to get up. My limbs swelled so I could hardly walk, and periodically I was taken with such severe pains through the groins that I could hardly stand it. The doctors advised hot applications and gave me bottle after bottle of medicine, but I did not receive any real benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. The Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Is Looking After the Disorderly Houses

IN THE CITY OF WELLSVILLE

Stated That He Intended to Visit the House of Flo Cook And

SEE IF LIQUOR WAS SOLD THERE

E. E. Miller, of Youngstown, an official of the internal revenue service, was in Wellsville on Saturday on a mission that may cause trouble for some Wellsville people.

Mr. Miller did not advertise his business from the housetops or the street corners, but he explained it to one or two men whose aid he required in making some investigations to ascertain if liquor was being sold there by persons who had no government license. From what Mr. Miller said and from the questions he asked it was plain that he was there to look after alleged disorderly houses which are reported to be doing business again, just as they were before the September grand jury made its famous raid upon that city.

Mr. Miller asked particularly about the house in Coal street reported to be run by Flo Cook. H said he was going to visit the house and see for himself if anything contrary to the letter or spirit of the revenue laws was being done there. Mr. Miller was told he would better be careful about visiting the house. It was explained to him that it was common report that the police were watching the house closely, and that if a stranger was seen going in there a raid might be made. Mr. Miller said he would be careful, and would give the police notice of his business there.

Whether Miller visited the Coal street house or not could not be learn-

There have been reports about the city that the house in Coal street was running again. The persons who were running the house when it was raided by the county authorities last fall were warned that they must not resume their business in Wellsville. If they disregarded this warning they were told they would be sent to the work house.

It is known that the prosecuting attorney's office has been watching these people ever since they were before the court in September, and if any evidence can be obtained that they have gone back to their old ways they will be taken over to Lisbon and severely dealt with.

It is an unwritten law in the minds of the large majority of the citizens of East Liverpool that every possible liberty shall be given to the manufacturers and employers of workmen even to the occupying of a portion of the sidewalks when necessity makes this a very desirable concession. But when this concession is granted or permitted, and the beneficiary takes an unjust and unrighteous advantage of it, and proceeds to occupy and block the entire sidewalk, and force pedestrians to walk in the mud of the public streets, he should be called down with a decision unmistakable and be compelled to act in accordance with the grand old Golden Rule.

WEDDING BELLS.

At high noon today Rev. William A. Curfman and Miss Annie Corns were united in marriage at the Methodist Protestant church. The bridegroom has been a resident of East Liverpool for the past twenty-five years, and he is deservedly popular. He was a scholar in our public schools for years, later engaged in our potteries, and eventually prepared himself for the ministry at Adrian college, Michigan. He has a host of friends in this city and section. His bride is one of our most estimable young ladies, and she has been an active and conscientious worker in church and Sabbath school work. The News Review wishes the young couple a full share of life's prosperity and happiness. As man and wife they are eminently fitted for the work of the ministry. God speed them in their advocacy of the right.

MET AN OBSTRUCTION

Mrs. Thorne Did Not Propose to Be Trod Upon and Said So.

ONLY ONE CHILD WAS SECURED

Another chapter was enacted in the Thorne family troubles yesterday afternoon when Edward Thorne, the husband, and Constable Miller went to the home of Mrs. Thorne on Second street for the purpose of securing the children, but they were doomed to disappointment, as but one was found at home.

The mother, as a matter of course, refused to give up her child and the men were compelled to resort to force, which they did. Thorne succeeded in taking the child and then turned his attention to the other two, but they were nowhere to be found. The mother had in the meantime taken her departure, and the men followed. She went to the shanty boat settlement near the flint mill, where the other two children were found, but it was concluded not to force the matter further, and while Officer Aufderheide, who had been picked up on the way, stood guard, Thorne and the conwhere an affidavit was sworn out charging the woman with neglecting the children.

Thorne was induced to accompany the officer to the squire's office, where a deceased was a member. plea of not guilty was entered.

During the first trip Constable Miller almost lost his life, as the woman secured a hatchet and would undoubtedly have done him an injury had not Officer Aufderheide interefered.

It has been finally settled that Mrs. Thorne should come into court this afternoon, bringing the children with her and some sort of definite arrangement would be made.

ONLY ONE CHILD WAS SECURED

Another chapter was enacted in the Thorne family troubles yesterday afternoon when Edward Thorne, the husband, and Constable Miller went to the home of Mrs. Thorne on Second street for the purpose of securing the children, but they were doomed to disappointment, as but one was found

The mother, as a matter of course, refused to give up her child and the men were compelled to resort to force, which they did. Thorne succeeded in taking the child and then turned his attention to the other two, but they were nowhere to be found. The mother had in the meantime taken her departure, and the men followed. She went to the shanty boat settlement near the flint mill, where the other two children were found, but it was concluded not to force the matter further, and while Officer Aufderheide, who had been picked up on the way, stood guard, Thorne and the constable came to McLane's office, where an affidavit was sworn out charging the woman with neglecting the children.

Another visit was paid to the house, and after some persuasion Mrs. Thorne was induced to accompany the officer to the squire's office, where a plea of not guilty was entered.

During the first trip Constable Miller almost lost his life, as the woman secured a hatchet and would undoubtedly have done him an injury had not Officer Aufderheide interefered.

It has been finally settled that Mrs. Thorne should come into court this afternoon, bringing the children with her and some sort of definite arrangement would be made.

Market Went Through Some Different Changes Wednesday-The Money Outlook Seemed Encouraging.

New York, Dec. 27.-The stock market went through astonishing vicissitudes Wednesday, but its most astonishing phase was the final recurrence of the undertone of strength which has come into support the market so persistently of late and driven off all moods of depression. After opening with a sky-rocket advance in price, followed by a drop very like the sky-rocket's stick, the market gathered itself together again of liquidation which continued in force at some points, it resumed its irregular show of streng; a, the straggling new points of strength being uneffected by the weakness at others. There seemed to be plenty of funds available for borrowers, and lenders showed themselves anxious to put out money on time, having in mind the coming disbursement of the yearly dividends and interest and the promise of lower rates, while borrowers showed a preference for call loans. The turn if the interior currency movement in favor of New York and continued gains by the New York banks from the sub-treasury on account of large premiums on government bonds and anticipatory payment of government interest gave a feeling of assurance that the year will be turned without trouble in the money market.

LEPROSY IN PHILIPPINES.

Franciscan Fathers Estimate There Are No Less Than 30,000-Place For Them to Be Solected.

Washington, Dec. 27.-An appended report to General MacArthur's review of the civil affairs of the Philippines for the past fiscal year gives some rather startling facts regarding the introduction and prevalence of leprosy in the islands.

According to the estimates of Franciscan fathers, stated Major Guy L. Edie, the writer of the report, there are no less than 30,000 lepers in the archinelago, the major portion of these being in the Viscavas. Leprosv was introduced in 1633, when the emperor of Japan sent a shin with 150 lepers on board to the Philippines as a present to be cared for by the Catholic priests. Thus the seed was planted, and as no practical methods ever were adonted to eradicate the disease, or prevent its spread, it has taken firm root. A house to house Inspection, begun last January, found more than a hundred lepers concealed in dwellings. These were sent to San Lazaro hospital in Manila, but many others escaped into the surrounding courtry. A commission is now engaged in the work of selecting a suitable island or islands for th purpose of isolating all the lepers i the archipelago.

KIDNAPPED HER CHILD

Ex-Attorney General Miller and Son Given a Chase.

MRS. MIFLER, JR., GOT HER BOY-

She Disappeared In Indianapolis-Father and Son Hurried Away on a Train, Then Returned - Officers at Work. Woman Refused to Live In Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Dec. 27.-A sensational kidnaping, involving the family of ex-United States Attorney General William H. H. Miller, occurred here, and led to a hot chase to overtake the wife of Samuel D. Miller, son of W. H. H. Miller, who was supposed to be flying to New York with her stolen son.

Samuel D. Miller and wife have lived in New York for several years. and last summer he came west to go into his fahter's office. His wife stayed in New York. Last Friday she came here to demand possession of her 7-year-old son, whom the father had brought west with him, and, ignoring the continued pressure and who was living with him at the grandfather's house, W. H. H. Miller, at 1027 North Delaware street.

The husband and wife had a consultation at the wife's apartments in the Denison and she agreed that if the boy was allowed to be sent to her daily with the nurse she would not attempt to kidnap him.

The boy and nurse called on Mrs. Miller at the Denison. She sent the nurse out to get a check cashed and while the governess was gone ordered a carriage and made arrangements to leave. When the governess re turned Mrs. Miller announced they were going for a drive. They start ed in a closed carriage down South Meridian street toward the depot The German governess, suspecting foul play, jumped out of the carriage while it was on a run, ran to a telophone and notified the father and grandfather.

Two hours later they received information which led them to believe that Mrs. Miller intended to take the Big Four accommodation train at Brightwood and then take the Knickerbocker train at Anderson or Muncie. The two Millers started on the Knickerbocker to overtake Mrs. Miller before she got out of the state.

Mrs. Miller was Miss Helen Karcher, of Pottstown, Pa. Samuel Miller first met ber nine years ago at Washington, when his father was President Harrison's attorney general. They were married a year later, and their son Sidney is now 7 years old.

Finding that she would be overtaken at the Union station when the nurse threw herself out of the carriage, Mrs. Miller started at once for Brightwood in the carriage, evidently intending to take a train. It is supposed she intended going to some point along the road and then take the Knickerbocker for the east. When she left the hotel Mrs. Miller announced that she was going to Union City for the night and would return today.

Mrs. Miller refused to come to Indianapolis to live and since that time has lived in New York. There has been no divorce and Mr. Miller has been sending her an allowance.

W. H. H. Miller and son returned last night from points along the Big Four. No trace of Mrs. Miller and the stolen boy could be secured From the ticket agent at Brightwood it has been learned that Mrs. Miller did not buy a ticket or take a train there.

The two Millers were met at the Union station on their return by three detectives and all went to W. H. H. Miller's office. It was learned that George Senour was the hackman engaged and he has disappeared after returning the back to the barn. The entire police and detective force of the city was employed to search the elte for the woman and boy.

W. H. H. Miller said: "She has always said she never under any circumstances, would live in Indiananolis. Sam tried to have her come here many times and I have wanted him to come with me as my partner here for years. It is a clear case of kidnaning. I have nothing to say as to the future."

Pimples

Are more than a disfigurement of the skin; they are a handicap to a young man, alike in love and business. The pimply face looks dissipated and both merchant and maiden look askance at the unfortunate fellow whose face is his misfortune. An almost certain cure for pimples and similar disfiguring eruptions is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood of the corrupting cause of ordinary eruptive diseases, cleanses the skin and builds up the body with sound wholesome flesh. "Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I am well pleased with your medicines," writes John A. Callo-way, Esq., of No. 218 26th St., Columbus, Ga. "In 1894 I was working at night and I broke out in lunns." I broke out in lumps all over, and when these left the skin peeled off. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and two of Doctor Pierce's Pellets, and Pierce's Pellets, and I do believe that I am sound and well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced treatment I had no appetite at all. My eyes were sunken and my face was pale. I had pimples and brown spots on my face. Now these are all gone. I have used many kinds of medicines but received no benefit. Last year I weighed one hundred and thirty-four pounds, and now I weigh one hundred and forty-five. Please accept my thanks. I am so glad I found the right kind of medicine."

Washington, Dec. 27.-An appended report to General MacArthur's review of the civil affairs of the Philippines for the past fiscal year gives some rather startling facts regarding the introduction and prevalence of leprosy in the islands.

According to the estimates of the posed she intended going to some Franciscan fathers, stated Major Guy point along the road and then take L. MRS. MIFLER, JR., GOT HER BOY-

She Disappeared In Indianapolis - Father and Son Hurried Away on a Train, Then Returned - Officers at Work. Woman Refused to Live In Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Dec. 27.-A sensational kidnaping, involving the family of ex-United States Attorney General William H. H. Miller, occurred here, and led to a hot chase to overtake the wife of Samuel D. Miller, son of W. H. H. Miller, who was supposed to be flying to New York with her stolen son.

Samuel D. Miller and wife have lived in New York for several years. and last summer he came west to go into his fahter's office. His wife stayed in New York. Last Friday she came here to demand possession of her 7-year-old son, whom the market gathered itself together again father had brought west with him. and who was living with him at the grandfather's house, W. H. H. Miller, at 1027 North Delaware street.

The husband and wife had a consultation at the wife's apartments in the Denison and she agreed that if the boy was allowed to be sent to her daily with the nurse she would not attempt to kidnap him.

The boy and nurse called on Mrs. Miller at the Denison. She sent the nurse out to get a check cashed and while the governess was gone ordered a carriage and made arrangements to leave. When the governess returned Mrs. Miller announced they were going for a drive. They started in a closed carriage down South Meridian street toward the depot. The German governess, suspecting foul play, jumped out of the carriage while it was on a run, ran to a telephone and notified the father and grandfather.

Two hours later they received information which led them to believe that Mrs. Miller intended to take the Big Four accommodation train at Brightwood and then take the Knickerbocker train at Anderson or Muncie. The two Millers started on the Knickerbocker to overtake Mrs. Miller before she got out of the state.

Mrs. Miller was Miss Helen Karcher, of Pottstown, Pa. Samuel Miller first met ber nine years ago at Washington, when his father was President Harrison's attorney general. They were married a year later, and their son Sidney is now 7 years old.

Finding that she would be overtaken at the Union station when the nurse threw herself out of the carriage, Mrs. Miller started at once for Brightwood in the carriage, evidently intending to take a train. It is supthe Knickerbocker for the east. When she left the hotel Mrs. Miller announced that she was going to refurn today.

Mrs. Miller refused to come to Indianapolis to live and since that time has lived in New York. There has been no divorce and Mr. Miller has been sending her an allowance.

W. H. H. Miller and son returned last night from points along the Big Four. No trace of Mrs. Miller and the stolen boy could be secured From the ticket agent at Brightwood did not buy a ticket or take a train there.

The two Millers were met at the Union station on their return by three detectives and all went to W. H. H. Miller's office. It was learned that George Senour was the backman engaged and he has disappeared after returning the back to the barn. The entire police and detective force of the city was employed to search the elte for the woman and bov.

W. H. H. Miller said: "She has always said she never under any circumstances, would live in Indiananhere many times and I have wanted him to come with me as my partner here for years. It is a clear case of kidnaning. I have nothing to say as to the future."

BRYAN NOT DECIDED.

May or May Not Be a Candidate Again.

HOPES FOR PLEASURE AS EDITOR.

Has Not Given Up His Loyalty to the Principles For Which He Fought-Kern Arraigned Deserters of the Party In Speech at Banquet.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 27 .- The annual banquet of the Jeffersonian club, of Lincoln, last night, at the Lincoln hotel, brought together nearly 300 representative men of the Democratic and Populist parties of Nebraska, together with a number of leaders from other states. William J. Bryan made his first appearance at a public gathering since the election, and the greeting accorded him was never more hearty and spontaneous in his home city.

In the course of his speech Mr. Bryan said:

"At this banquet, surrounded by neighbors who have been my friends for 10 years, I may be pardoned for saying a word of a personal nature. Five times you have voted for me for public office—twice for congress, once for the United States senate and twice for the presidency-and no candidate ever received more loyal support than you have given.

Whether I shall ever be a candidate for office again is a question which must be determined by events. No one can speak with certainty of the future, for one's destiny is not known until his life's work is complete. I shall be content if it is my lot to aid in the triumph of the principles while others enjoy the honors and bear the responsibility of of-

"The holding of public office should be an incident and not the extreme aim of the citizen. It should not be an end, but the means for the accomplishment of a purpose.

"The presidency seemed desirable because it would have enabled me to give effective aid to certain reforms which I believe to be necessary to the public welfare, but defeat-even a second defeat-does not lessen my interest in this reform, and time may prove that my work is to advocate rather than to execute.

"The Commoner will give me an opportunity to participate in public discussions, and I am sure that an edi-torial pursuit will furnish as much intellectual enjoyment as I could have found in the white house, and in addition thereto will give me more time for home pleasures.

The principles for which we contended in the last campaign still live and we who believe in them must continue to fight for them. An elecpes not change principles; i only determines what principles shall be for the time being applied. "The believers in tariff reform did not abandon their faith when the high tariff doctrine was endorsed at the polls, neither did protectionists when their cause suffered loss. The advocates of the gold standard con-tinued the fight for monometallism for 25 years in spite of the platform declarations of all parties in favor of a double standard. Shall we who believe in bimetallism lose courage because our opponents have profited by an increased volume of money. thus admitting the economic principle for which we have been contend-

The defenders of trusts did not lose heart when all parties denounced combinations in restraint of trade. Shall we give up the fight because monopoly has triumphed by stealth? Must we now advocate an imperial policy because our opponents have won a victory by denying that they are imperialists? A colonial system involves a surrender of our theory of government and the people will understand this as soon as the system is nut into operation. If we were to consult our immediate convenience and comfort we would never oppose wrong of any kind, for all warfare involves a temporary sacrifice, but this is our government and must be transmitted unimpaired to posterity. We have no choice, therefore, but to stand steadfast come what may.

"If we are successful in diverting present tendencies and in corrying the government to its old foundations we shall rejoice in the victory and profit by the reforms secured. I am confident that we shall ultimately win, but if the trend toward plutocrace can not be checked it is still better that we should be defeated in a righteons undertaking than that we should join hands with those who are ignoring the inalienable rights of

Market Went Through Some Different Changes Wednesday-The Money Outlook Seemed Encouraging.

New York, Dec. 27.-The stock market went through astonishing vicissitudes Wednesday, but its most astonishing phase was the final recurrence of the undertone of strength which has come into support the market so persistently of late and driven off all moods of depression. After opening with a sky-rocket advance in price, followed by a drop very like the sky-rocket's stick, the market gathered itself together again and, ignoring the continued pressure of liquidation which continued in force at some points, it resumed its irregular show of streng; a, the straggling new points of strength being uneffected by the weakness at others. There seemed to be plenty of funds available for borrowers, and lenders showed themselves anxious to put out money on time, having in mind the coming disbursement of the yearly dividends and interest and the promise of lower rates, while borrowers showed a preference for call loans. The turn if the interior currency movement in favor of New York and continued gains by the New York banks from the sub-treasury on account of large premiums on government bonds and anticipatory payment of government interest gave a feeling of assurance that the year while it was on a run, ran to a telewill be turned without trouble in the phone and notified the father and money market.

A number of Wellsville business men, together with several from East Liverpool, are interested in the American Kootenai Mining company, in Montana. FOR BETTER LIGHT.

The Company is Doing Everything Possible to Get a Splendid Service.

Inquiry made at the office of the light company today as to what course ber was carried out, brought out the fact that the officials of the company are not worrying a great deal about the matter and will continue, as in the past, to do the best they can under the circumstances.

Superintendent Thompson stated the fault lies with the Newark firm, with whom the company has a contract to furnish lamps, and that the local concern have been endeavoring for the past month to have the Newark people make good the defective lamps, but to the present they have not been sucessful. Mr. Healy was in Newark yesterday and called on the manufacturers in reference to the matter.

There is now but one regulator in use on the local system, but that is working admirably. Another of the same sort has been sent for, but has not yet arrived.

REFORMATORY REPORT FILFN

Statistics Showing the Condition of Finances at the Institution For the Year

SET FORTH BY THE MANAGEMENT

It Shows That the Cost of Running the Reformatory Has Been Reduced.

FACTS AND FIGURES REPORTED

The report of the state reformatory, recently submitted to the governor and returned for correction, was filed with Governor Nash on Monday.

The average prison population during the fiscal year ending November 15, 1900, was 315, the same as that of the preceding year. Superintendent Sefton says in his report that there has been a slight reduction in the per capita cost, but he fails to give the per capita cost for either year. He says that little can be accomplished in the direction of reducing running expenses until the completion of the new cell wing.

He says that the two items of lighting and heating alone, with the present cell capacity, have increased the per capita cost by $31 06 this year. He does not explain how the construction of more places to heat and light will lessen the expense.

The number of prisoners confined at the reformatory November 15, 1899, was 272 and 191 were received from the courts during the year. The paroled prisoners rearrested during the year number 25, and five escaped prisoners were rearrested. The total number in confinement, therefore, was 493. Four died during the year, six escaped, eight were pardoned, 25 were released and 142 were paroled. One was released by order of court and two were transferred to other institutions. The average term of imprisonment of prisoners paroled and discharged during the year was 1 year, 7 months and following subject. Such a record of 11 days. The highest number at the local endorsement is unequalled in reformatory at any one time was 363 modern times. This public statement and the lowest 276.

IN SILKS AND SATINS

And Their Fine Costumes Did Not Restrain Them from Visiting Liquid Hells.

They were arrayed like unto the lilies of the field. They presented an appearance foreign to the toiler or the spinner. They were clad in satins and in silks. They were meandering through the Midway yesterday. To the casual observer they resembled ladies. They glanced around and about them furtively, in order to see whether they were observed or not, and then darted into the auxiliary connected with one of the hell holes common to that delectable and rum soaked locality. The passion of the drink was upon them. The alcohol fiend had them in his toils, and the fumes of hades, dripping from the still, caused them to lose all sense of shame and decency, and they dodged into the vile den in order to imbibe liquid damnation. God pity such poor, unfortunate victims of rum; and God have mercy on the nation which licenses such an infamous traffic.

A very pleasant surprise was tendered Rev. Mason, pastor of the African M. E. church, at his home, 351 Lisbon street, on Christmas eve. It was in the shape of a donation party, and was attended by a large number of the members of that congregation.

The reverend gentleman was the recipient of many useful articles, prominent among which were a turkey and a load of coal. The occasion was an enjoyable one.

The Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Is Looking After the Disorderly Houses

IN THE CITY OF WELLSVILLE his brother, Len Hertel.

Stated That He Intended to Visit the House of Flo Cook

And

SEE IF LIQUOR WAS SOLD THERE

E. E. Miller, of Youngstown, an official of the internal revenue service, was in Wellsville on Saturday on a mission that may cause trouble for some Wellsville people.

Mr. Miller did not advertise his business from the housetops or the street corners, but he explained it to one or two men whose aid he required in making some investigations to ascertain if liquor was being sold there by persons who had no government license. From what Mr. Miller said and from the questions he asked it was plain that he was there to look after alleged disorderly houses which are reported to be doing business again, just as they were before the September grand jury made its famous raid upon that city.

Mr. Miller asked particularly about the house in Coal street reported to be run by Flo Cook. H said he was going to visit the house and see for himself if anything contrary to the letter or spirit of the revenue laws was being done there. Mr. Miller was told he would better be careful about visiting the house. It was explained to him that it was common report that the police were watching the house closely, and that if a stranger was seen going in there a raid might be made. Mr. Miller said he would be careful, and would give the police notice of his business there.

Whether Miller visited the Coal street house or not could not be learn-

There have been reports about the city that the house in Coal street was running again. The persons who were running the house when it was raided by the county authorities last fall were warned that they must not resume their business in Wellsville. If they disregarded this warning they were told they would be sent to the work house.

It is known that the prosecuting attorney's office has been watching these people ever since they were before the court in September, and if any evidence can be obtained that they have gone back to their old ways they will be taken over to Lisbon and severely dealt with.

COURTESY.

It costs you but very little, and it is a wise and profitable investment. If you treat a man boorishly when he visits your establishment, you should be treated as a boor when the circumstances are reversed. In fact if you last. Gentlemen, success and prosperare a boor, a born boor, a natural boor, you will not appreciate the niceties and refinements of a pure and a good and a clean life, and you should be barred out and ostracised. If you are not too far gone in your boorishness, and are still susceptible to improvement, for the sake of yourself and your own best interests cultivate the remnant of courtesy and refinement that exist in your being.

SIDEWALKS.

It is an unwritten law in the minds of the large majority of the citizens of East Liverpool that every possible liberty shall be given to the manufacturers and employers of workmen. even to the occupying of a portion of the sidewalks when necessity makes this a very desirable concession. But when this concession is granted or permitted, and the beneficiary takes an unjust and unrighteous advantage of it, and proceeds to occupy and block the entire sidewalk, and force pedestrians to walk in the mud of the public streets, he should be called down with a decision unmistakable and be compelled to act in accordance with the grand old Golden Rule.

WEDDING BELLS.

At high noon today Rev. William A. Curfman and Miss Annie Corns were united in marriage at the Methodist Protestant church. The bridegroom has been a resident of East Liverpool for the past twenty-five years, and he is deservedly popular. He was a scholar in our public schools for years, later engaged in our potteries, and eventually prepared himself for the ministry at Adrian college, Michigan. He has a host of friends in this city and section. His bride is one of our most estimable young ladies, and she has been an active and conscientious worker in church and Sabbath school work. The News Review wishes the young couple a full share of life's prosperity and happiness. As man and wife they are eminently fitted for the work of the ministry. God speed them in their advocacy of the right.

--SANCTIFICATION.

There is no limit to the power of the infinite being. The only, all wise and true God possesses limitless power, holding our lives subject to his will and mercy. The sanctification of a human being rests easily within the power of our Creator. But we believe that the sanctified man or woman, if God permits and provides for thorough sanctification in this life, will be an honest man or woman, owing no human being anything save good will, and will meet every obligation coming within the bounds of possibility. And, further, such a sanctified human being will be truthful, merciful, free from malice and hatred of any one, and not addicted to backbiting, fault finding, bickering, strife, and the too free use of that unruly member, known as the human tongue. In a nutshell, the sanctified human being, in our opinion, is a faultless human being, made so $5 00 by the wonderful and limitless power lain. 1 25 of an Almighty God—a merciful Heavenly Father.

DRUNK ALL OVER.

He was braced up against a telephone pole at the corner of Washington and Fourth streets last night. He was dead to the world for the time being. Later on, the law that licensed the crime which made him temporarily an imbecile and an unaccountable or irresponsible being, sent a vehicle to his hanging on place and conveyed him to the lockup. A common drunk and a common nuisance, made so through the enactment of a common law. Oh, the pity and absurdity and assininity of such so-called justice.

Constable Miller and Ed. Thorne Went After the Three Children But-

MET AN OBSTRUCTION

Mrs. Thorne Did Not Propose to Be Trod Upon and Said So.

ONLY ONE CHILD WAS SECURED

Another chapter was enacted in the Thorne family troubles yesterday afternoon when Edward Thorne, the husband, and Constable Miller went to the home of Mrs. Thorne on Second street for the purpose of securing the children, but they were doomed to disappointment, as but one was found at home.

The mother, as a matter of course, refused to give up her child and the men were compelled to resort to force, which they did. Thorne succeeded in taking the child and then turned his attention to the other two, but they were nowhere to be found. The mother had in the meantime taken her departure, and the men followed. She went to the shanty boat settlement near the flint mill, where the other two children were found, but it was concluded not to force the matter further, and while Officer Aufderheide, who had been picked up on the way, stood guard, Thorne and the conwhere an affidavit was sworn out charging the woman with neglecting the children.

Another visit was paid to the house, and after some persuasion Mrs. Thorne was induced to accompany the officer to the squire's office, where a plea of not guilty was entered.

During the first trip Constable Miller almost lost his life, as the woman secured a hatchet and would undoubtedly have done him an injury had not Officer Aufderheide interefered.

It has been finally settled that Mrs. Thorne should come into court this afternoon, bringing the children with her and some sort of definite arrangement would be made.

The company's agents strove hard to prevent the stampede to the strikers, but it was all in vain. Business and professional men joined in exhorting the new comers to go over to the strikers' side, and police lined up outside the car put in an occasional good word on the quiet at the open windows for the car men, while about a thousand strike sympathizers cheered lustily as the converts singly or in small groups were escorted out by the strikers and their friends. There was no violence and no angry words, although not infrequently the company's agents and the strikers or their friends would be working on the same man at the same time with their different exhortations.

Eleven of the 29 men brought from New York Tuesday night were returned on one train that left about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning, and eight more of them went away on another train that left about 3:30 Wednesday afternoon.

The company had only 12 men left to run the cars Wednesday. Five cars were run, but all told there were not threescore of passengers carried.

Has Not Given Up His Loyalty to the Principles For Which He Fought-Kern Arraigned Deserters of the Party In Speech at Banquet.

Lincoln, Neb., Dec. 27.-The annual banquet of the Jeffersonian club, of Lincoln, last night, at the Lincoln hotel, brought together nearly 300 representative men of the Democratic and Populist parties of Nebraska, together with a number of leaders from other states. William J. Bryan made his first appearance at a public gathering since the election, and the greeting accorded him was never more hearty and spontaneous in his home city.

In the course of his speech Mr. Bryan said:

"At this banquet, surrounded by neighbors who have been my friends for 10 years, I may be pardoned for saying a word of a personal nature. irregular show of streng; a, the strag-Five times you have voted for me for public office-twice for congress, once for the United States senate and twice for the presidency-and no candidate ever received more loyal support than you have given.

Whether I shall ever be a candidate for office again is a question which must be determined by events. No one can speak with certainty of the future, for one's destiny is not known until his life's work is complete. I shall be content if it is my lot to aid in the triumph of the principles while others enjoy the honors and bear the responsibility of of-

"The Commoner will give me an opportunity to participate in public discussions, and I am sure that an editorial pursuit will furnish as much intellectual enjoyment as I could have found in the white house, and in addition thereto will give me more time for home pleasures.

"The principles for which we contended in the last campaign still live and we who believe in them must continue to fight for them. An election does not change principles; it only determines what principles shall be for the time being applied.

"The believers in tariff reform did not abandon their faith when the high tariff doctrine was endorsed at the polls, neither did protectionists when their cause suffered loss. The advocates of the gold standard con-tinued the fight for monometallism for 25 years in spite of the platform declarations of all parties in favor of a double standard. "The defenders of trusts did not lose heart when all parties denounced combinations in restraint of trade. Shall we give up the fight because monopoly has triumphed by stealth? Must we now advocate an imperial policy because our opponents have won a victory by denying that they are imperialists? A colonial system involves a surrender of our theory of government, and the people will understand this as soon as the system is nut into operation. If we were to consult our immediate convenience and comfort we would never oppose wrong of any kind, for all warfare involves a temporary sacrifice, but this is our government and must be transmitted unimpaired to posterity. We have no choice, therefore, but to stand steadfast come what may.

"If we are successful in diverting present tendencies and in corrying the government to its old foundations we shall rejoice in the victory and profit by the reforms secured. I am confident that we shall ultimately win, but if the trend toward plutocrace can not be checked it is still better that we should be defeated in a righteons undertaking than that we should join bands with those who are ignoring the inalienable rights of

Market Went Through Some Different Changes Wednesday-The Money Outlook Seemed Encouraging.

New York, Dec. 27.-The stock market went through astonishing vicissitudes Wednesday, but its most astonishing phase was the final recurrence of the undertone of strength which has come into support the market so persistently of late and driven off all moods of depression. After opening with a sky-rocket advance in price, followed by a drop very like the sky-rocket's stick, the market gathered itself together again and, ignoring the continued pressure of liquidation which continued in force at some points, it resumed its gling new points of strength being uneffected by the weakness at others. There seemed to be plenty of funds available for borrowers, and lenders showed themselves anxious to put out money on time, having in mind the coming disbursement of the yearly dividends and interest and the promise of lower rates, while borrowers showed a preference for call loans. The turn if the interior currency movement in favor of New York and continued gains by the New York banks from the sub-treasury on account of large premiums on government bonds and anticipatory payment of government interest gave a feeling of assurance that the year will be turned without trouble in the money market.

The railroad bond market was active and showed only a few weak spots. Total sales, par value, $4.410,-

All United States bonds advanced

Thus the seed was planted, and as no practical methods ever were adonted to eradicate the disease, or prevent its spread, it has taken firm root. A house to house Inspection, begun last January, found more than a hundred leners concealed in dwellings. These were sent to San Lazaro hospital in Manila, but did not buy a ticket or take a train many others escaped into the surrounding country. A commission is now engaged in the work of selecting a suitable island or islands for th purpose of isolating all the lepers i the archipelago.

She Disappeared In Indianapolis-Father and Son Hurried Away on a Train, Then Returned - Officers at Work. Woman Refused to Live In Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Dec. 27.-A sensational kidnaping, involving the family of ex-United States Attorney General William H. H. Miller, occurred here, and led to a hot chase to overtake the wife of Samuel D. Miller, son of W. H. H. Miller, who was supposed to be flying to New York with her stolen son.

Samuel D. Miller and wife have lived in New York for several years. and last summer he came west to go into his fahter's office. His wife stayed in New York. Last Friday she came here to demand possession of her 7-year-old son, whom the father had brought west with him, and who was living with him at the grandfather's house, W. H. H. Miller, at 1027 North Delaware street.

The husband and wife had a consultation at the wife's apartments in the Denison and she agreed that if the boy was allowed to be sent to her daily with the nurse she would not attempt to kidnap him.

The boy and nurse called on Mrs. Miller at the Denison. She sent the nurse out to get a check cashed and while the governess was gone ordered a carriage and made arrangements to leave. When the governess re-turned Mrs. Miller announced they were going for a drive. They started in a closed carriage down South Meridian street toward the depot The German governess, suspecting foul play, jumped out of the carriage while it was on a run, ran to a telephone and notified the father and grandfather.

Two hours later they received information which led them to believe that Mrs. Miller intended to take the Big Four accommodation train at Brightwood and then take the Knickerbocker train at Anderson or Muncie. The two Millers started on the Knickerbocker to overtake Mrs. Miller before she got out of the state.

Mrs. Miller was Miss Helen Karcher, of Pottstown, Pa. Samuel Miller first met her nine years ago at Wash ington, when his father was President Harrison's attorney general. They were married a year later, and their son Sidney is now 7 years old. Finding that she would be overtaken at the Union station when the nurse threw herself out of the carriage, Mrs. Miller started at once for Brightwood in the carriage, evidently intending to take a train. It is supposed she intended going to some point along the road and then take there are no less than 30,000 lepers in When she left the hotel Mrs. Miller Union City for the night and would

> Mrs. Miller refused to come to Indianapolis to live and since that time has lived in New York. There has been no divorce and Mr. Miller has been sending her an allowance.

W. H. H. Miller and son returned last night from points along the Big Four. No trace of Mrs. Miller and the stolen boy could be secured From the ticket agent at Brightwood it has been learned that Mrs. Miller there.

The two Millers were met at the Union station on their return by three detectives and all went to W. H. H. Miller's office. It was learned that George Senour was the hackman engaged and he has disappeared after returning the back to the barn. The entire police and detective force of the city was employed to search the elte for the woman and boy.

W. H. H. Miller said: "She has always said she never under any circumstances, would live in Indiananolis. Sam tried to have her come here many times and I have wanted him to come with me as my partner here for years. It is a clear case of kidnaping. I have nothing to say

KIDNAPPED HER CHILD Pimples

Are more than a disfigurement of the skin; they are a handicap to a young man, alike in love and business. The pimply face looks dissipated and both merchant and maiden look askance at the unfortunate fellow whose face is his misfortune. An almost certain cure for pimples and similar disfiguring eruptions is found in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It pur-ifies the blood of the corrupting cause of ordinary eruptive diseases, cleanses the skin and builds up the body with sound wholesome flesh. "Discovery" contains neither alcohol nor narcotics.

"I am well pleased with your medicines," writes John A. Calloway, Esq., of No. 218 26th St., Columbus, Ga. "In 1894 I was working at night and I broke out in lumps all over, and when these left the skin peeled off. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and two of Doctor Pierce's Pellets, and I do believe that I am sound and well. I have a good appetite, but before I commenced treatment I had no appetite at all. My eyes were sunken and my face was pale. I had pimples and brown spots on my face. Now these are all gone. I have used many kinds of medicines but received no benefit. Last year I weighed one hundred and thirty-four pounds, and now I weigh one hundred and forty-five. Please accept my thanks. I am so glad I found the right kind of medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
